Liturgical Reflection

After a full day of preaching and healing, Jesus retreats to bed, then rises before dawn to slip away into the wilderness to pray.

He leaves with us a model that clearly shows that our active ministries depend upon prayer. What we accomplish in a busy day may depend on what we do in the early morning. By surrendering to God first, we are acknowledging that any good we accomplish is only flowing through us. This frees us from any notion that we ourselves are the source. For the people of Galilee, the many healings performed by Jesus in and around Capernaum in today's Gospel could have only come from the hand of God.

Deacon Dick Folger

✦ Please keep Joseph Tutu, our Drummer, and his family in your prayers. His trip to Liberia was made possible because of your generosity. He will be returning on February 15.

We mourn the deaths of the hundreds of thousands of people killed since the beginning of the war in Iraq and Afghanistan.....children, women, and men from Iraq, from Afghanistan, from the United States and from all over the world, including those from the US military listed here, whose deaths were confirmed during the past week:

Special Notes For Our Volunteers...

We Appreciate All Of Our Volunteers! This Sunday, February, 8th, at our Volunteer Appreciation Dinner, we celebrate the ministries of all of you who help build our parish community by sharing your time and skills. You know who you are and God knows and loves each and every one of you who let his love show through you.

Volunteer Spotlight: We have supporters and parishioners from all over, but we rely in special ways every day on those who live nearby ... and their numbers are increasing! Our neighborhood parishioners lead many of our programs and events like teaching in the Parish School of Religion (PSR), singing in the choir, helping in the office, cleaning the church, cooking and serving luncheons after funerals and fundraisers almost every month that together raise thousands of dollars ranging from chicken dinners, pancake breakfasts bake sales, rummage sale, 50/50 raffle, weekly coffee and doughnuts and more activities than we can mention. You are the glue that holds us together and makes us so strong and vibrant. You are the threads that make us a strong attractive fabric.

A Special Thank You To Our At—Home Volunteers: Most of our volunteer ministries are visible, but you may not realize that every day we are all the benefactors of the prayers of the homebound, who cannot participate regularly in events because of health concerns. Sister Wilma, Sister Audrey and other Eucharistic Ministers are in regular contact with more than 60 such persons who pray for us daily. The prayers of those we minister to at the Algart Nursing Home and Cogswell Hall are also part of what inspires and invigorates our ministries. Thank you, one and all!

Reminder...

There will be a Parish Council Meeting Monday, February 9, at 6:30 PM in the Rectory.

Our next 50/50 Raffle will be on February 15, 2009 during Coffee and Donuts after the 11:00 AM Mass. Tickets are available at Coffee and Donuts after Sunday Masses. If you can help sell tickets please see Sue Franks, June Smith or Father Bob after Mass.

FREE TAX PREPARATION: Don't pay filing fees or interest to get your IRS refund "faster" -- for-profit tax preparers are making enormous profits because they are really giving you a loan with high interest against the refund you expect when they offer immediate refunds. Get your taxes done for free AND the entire refund due to you by calling one of The Cuyahoga Earned Income Tax Coalition FREE tax preparation sites. The CEITC has organized expert volunteer tax-preparers at 38 sites around Cleveland where you can get FREE tax preparation. Some nearby sites are Merrick House West, 3167 Fulton Road, 281-4212, Old Brooklyn NFSC 4261 Fulton Parkway, 987-6620, Spanish American Committee, 4407 Lorain Avenue, 961-2100, and 35 other neighborhood centers. You can call any of these to make an appointment OR call First Call for Help by dialing 211, to ask for the Cuyahoga County Free tax preparation sites. Please see the insert in this Weekend's Bulletin for details.
