Liturgical Reflection:

“Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?”

Jesus reveals that he has the power of God who commands the wind and the sea. After his death and Resurrection he will breathe the power they need into those who trust in him.

Please pray for all those who have died especially, John Andrako, Marge Leonard, MAJ Rocco Martin Barnes, Dennis Collins, Giuseppa Ionta and Kathie Carey.
Also, please pray for those who are sick, including the following:

Tickets are $25.00 and will be on sale after all Masses in the Parish Hall, by asking any staff member, or by calling the Parish Office. HURRY! TICKETS ARE GOING FAST! Please come and invite everyone you know—the success of this fundraiser will help us to end the Fiscal Year in the black.

There will be a Finance Council Meeting Wednesday, June 24, in the Parish Office at 6:30 PM. Please Plan to attend.

All Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion must participate in a continuing education and formation session before January 1, 2010. These are offered this week at Churches throughout the Diocese. The schedule of times and places is available in the Sacristy. The sessions will also be offered in September. Persons interested in becoming Eucharistic Ministers should contact Fr. Bob.

Are you registered in the Parish? One of Bishop Lennon's directives to us is to continue to increase the number of people registered as members. Do you receive offering envelopes every month, parish news letters or other mailings from us? If you don't, you are probably not registered! Please call our Parish Secretary, Linda Vega, at the Parish Office and she will gladly register you and your family. All adult members of your household should register separately. Since May 1, 72 new households have registered in the Parish....let's keep this trend going!

ST. COLMAN'S NEW LITERACY PROJECT

St. Colman's is offering an adult program for those in need of basic skills in reading and math and GED preparation. Classes will be every Tuesday from 6:00 PM to 7:30 PM. You can register at that time. Come to the Parish School Building (corner of Madison and W. 65th) Room 26. Use the entrance off the parking lot. There is no charge for the participants. For more information please call the Parish Office.
