Liturgical Reflection:

Jesus demonstrated his perfect and loving obedience to the God he served by his perfect, loving obedience to people who need Him. He asks Bartimaeus the blind man, "What do you want me to do for you?" Then he immediately and lovingly grants his request for sight. We can ask him for what we truly need with the same persistent confidence of Bartimaeus, and we can imitate his loving obedience to God by a loving response to those who come to us in need.

— Fr. Bob Begin

We Remember

Sunday, November 1, is All Saint's Day and Monday, November 2, is All Soul's Day. Those who have died during the past year and who were buried from St. Colman's will be remembered by reading their names at all the weekend Masses on October 31 and November 1.

You are invited to list all of your loved ones who have died on the yellow slips of paper in all of the pews and on the literature table at the back of the Church. Place the yellow slips in the baskets on the Communion Rail. These baskets will be placed on the altar throughout the month of November.

St. Colman Day is 20 Days Away!
